Per Se Private Dining: 212.823.9349

OPENED IN 2004 by Chef Thomas Keller, Per Se is located at Ten Columbus Circle on the fourth floor of the Time Warner Center and features striking views of Central Park and Columbus Circle. The three-star Michelin restaurant offers contemporary American cuisine with traditional French influences.

THE PER SE EXPERIENCE is founded on the nine-course tasting menu, enjoyed every evening by guests in our Main Dining Room. For private events at Per Se, we recognize the need for a more tailored experience. You may select from a variety of tasting menu formats including the four-, five-, seven- and nine-course menus. Our chef is happy to design a personalized menu for your event inspired by the freshest products available at the market and from our purveyors.

THE PRIVATE WEST ROOM

The West Room accommodates up to 66 guests for seated events or 120 guests for standing receptions. The room was designed to offer an elegant space reminiscent of a Parisian living room. The cream-colored walls, horizontal mirrors in linear formations and mahogany furniture provide a soothing backdrop to any occasion. The room offers its own guest lobby area and private restrooms.

THE MAIN DINING ROOM

The Main Dining Room of the restaurant is also available Monday through Thursday for private lunch events of up to 88 guests. This room offers wonderful views of Columbus Circle and Central Park.

ABOUT THE CHEFS

THOMAS KELLER

Renowned for his culinary skills and his impeccable standards, Thomas Keller is the chef and proprietor of The French Laundry, a Yountville, California, landmark that has been hailed as the finest restaurant in the world. Ten years after opening this, his first restaurant, in 1994, he followed with Per Se, which brought his distinctive fine-dining style to Manhattan. Today, both restaurants enjoy three-star Michelin ratings, making Keller the first and only American-born chef to hold multiple three-star ratings from the prestigious dining guide. Chef Keller has also opened Bouchon, Bar Bouchon, Bouchon Bakery, and Ad Hoc, each of which contributes to the new paradigm he has set within the hospitality industry.

Keller was designated a Chevalier of The French Legion of Honor in 2011, the highest decoration in France, in recognition of his lifelong commitment to the traditions of French cuisine and his role in elevating cooking in America. He is the third American culinary figure to be so honored.

COREY CHOW

Corey Chow became the chef de cuisine of Per Se in the summer of 2017. Chow oversees a collaborative and committed kitchen team and is responsible for all menus and guests' experiences at the three Michelin-starred restaurant. Chow joined the Thomas Keller Restaurant Group in 2007 as a commis at Per Se. He quickly moved up the ranks as a chef de partie, and in June 2010 he became the first sous chef that Eli Kaimeh, then chef de cuisine, promoted. At the end of 2013, Chow decided to gain experience elsewhere at The Nomad, and later as the chef de cuisine of Torrisi Italian Specialties. In 2015, he returned to Per Se as an executive sous chef before being promoted to his current role. Prior to Per Se, Chow was a chef de partie at Alan Wong's in Hawaii. There, he worked alongside chefs who had spent time at The French Laundry and Per Se and was struck by their collective influences and work ethic. Never having experienced that level of professionalism and excellence before, Chow set his goals to be part of Chef Keller's team.
